

Accessibility statement

This accessibility statement applies to the locationinnovation.eu website and has been prepared by 07.12.2023. Accessibility has been assessed by the web service administrator together with Twoday Oy.

The level of accessibility and the corrective measures taken are in accordance with the customer's accessibility level set by the customer. The testing and evaluation was performed in Firefox and Chrome browsers. Other browsers were also used to check details.

The accessibility tools used for testing were as follows; on the computer, mainly in-browser screen readers, and on the mobile version, the Android TalkBack screen reader.

The Google Lighthouse utility has been used to assess accessibility.

Accessibility status

The accessibility of the site has been tested to WCAG 2.1 AA level requirements. The website largely meets all the requirements of Level A and Level AA well.
